

Family Movie Reviews

THE DOVE FOUNDATION is a non-profit organization established to encourage and promote the creation, production and distribution of wholesome family entertainment. The Foundation, free from commercial pressures, awards a blue and white Dove Seal to any movie or video that is rated "family-friendly" by its film review board.

Family Friendly Media

We Provide the Details... You Decide

We offer the most comprehensive and objective information available on movies, television and video games. Use the search bar to browse through our thousands of titles. Now you can make informed entertainment choices based on your own personal standards of suitability.

Parents Television Council - Because Our Children Are Watching

Acts to bring positive, family-oriented television programming to the US entertainment industry.